KB Home –Los Angeles’ First Builder Certified for Quality

KB Home has been delivering quality homes in communities throughout the Los Angeles metro area since 1963. Even with such an impressive track record, KB Home is not only focused on building homes; customer service excellence remains a top priority for the company.

“Becoming the first builder in Los Angeles to be named an NHQ Certified Builder is a significant milestone in our continued commitment to providing superior customer service, innovative architecture and quality homes,” said KB Home North Los Angeles division president, Tom DiPrima. “KB Home is driven by these goals in everything we do. Completing the National Housing Quality Certified Builder program was particularly important to our division because it demonstrates to homebuyers and our partners that KB Home is dedicated to delivering quality homes.”

KB Home has long been a pioneer in quality assurance in the home building industry. In November 2003, KB Home Chairman and CEO Bruce Karatz announced that the company would become the first large builder in the country to implement the NHQ Certified Trade Contractor program nationwide. This partnership has served to provide greater efficiency, consistency, and effectiveness to the benefit of KB Home’s customers. As a result of program implementation, all of KB Home’s trade partners will be required to complete quality assurance management training, and are on their way towards achieving NHQ certification.
